Gori Julian introduces new attorney

For The Telegraph

EDWARDSVILLE — The Edwardsville-based law firm of Gori Julian & Associates, Inc. recently announced the addition of Megan Myers to the growing firm's roster of attorneys.

Myers comes to Gori Julian from the chambers of Chief Judge David R. Herndon of the Southern District of Illinois, where she served as a term judicial law clerk for three years. Prior to her federal clerkship, Myers graduated from the University of Tulsa College of Law.

While at the University of Tulsa, Myers served as the Notes & Comments Editor of the Tulsa Law Review, received the ALI-ABA Scholarship & Leadership Award, and received the Robert C. Butler, Jr., Award for Excellence in Legal Scholarship and Writing. In 2011, Myers received a Burton Award for Legal Achievement, Distinguished Writing Award, in association with the Library of Congress. Myers is licensed to practice law in Illinois, Missouri and Oklahoma.

Myers joins Gori Julian's team of highly skilled attorneys that concentrate on complex asbestos cases and personal injury litigation. While the firm is headquartered in Illinois, Gori Julian & Associates is truly a nationwide firm as it has represented victims of asbestos exposure from throughout the country. The firm also handles cases in occupational disease, pharmaceutical litigation, products liability litigation, personal injury and more.
